C.B.1 Intellectual Property

For the purposes of this clause, “Intellectual Property Rights” means all intellectual property rights which may subsist in Australia or elsewhere, whether or not they are current or future or registered or capable of being registered, including without limitation in relation to, copyright, designs, trade marks (including unregistered marks), business and company names, domain names, database, circuit layouts, patents, inventions, discoveries, know-how, trade secrets and confidential information, but excluding Moral Rights.

The Supplier owns the Intellectual Property Rights in the Material created under this Contract. The Supplier agrees to grant the Customer an exclusive perpetual licence to enable the Customer to exercise the Intellectual Property Rights to use the Material created under this Contract for the reasons for which it was created and for closely associated activities and programs that are non-commercial in nature. The style guide must be followed in all usage, and the artist and Gilimbaa must be referenced wherever it is practically possible to do so.

The Customer grants to the Supplier a non-exclusive, non-transferable, irrevocable, royalty-free licence for this Contract Term to exercise the Intellectual Property Rights in the Material for the sole purpose of fulfilling its obligations under this Contract. The licence in this clause is subject to any conditions or limitations of third parties that APRA notifies to the Supplier.

Intellectual Property Rights in Goods provided under this Contract or pre-existing Intellectual Property of the Supplier, set out below (if any), will not change as a result of this Contract.

Pre-Existing Intellectual Property of the Supplier

C.B.2 Confidential Information of the Supplier

APRA agrees that the following information meets the Commonwealth’s confidentiality guidelines and agrees to treat the information as confidential unless required by law to disclose the information. APRA retains the right to disclose any other information contained in this Contract.

Information to be kept confidential
Not applicable

C.B.3 Interest on Late Payments

APRA must pay the amount of a Correctly Rendered Invoice to the Supplier within twenty (20) calendar days after receiving it, or if this day is not a business day, on the next business day.

If the total value of this Contract (as amended from time-to-time) is not more than $A1 million (GST inclusive) and APRA fails to make a payment to the Supplier by the business day it is due, provided the amount of interest payable under this clause exceeds $100, APRA will pay the unpaid amount plus interest on the unpaid amount.

Interest payable under this clause will be simple interest calculated in respect of each calendar day from the day after the amount was due and payable, up to and including the day that APRA effects payment, calculated using the General Interest Charge Rate formula available at the Australian Taxation Office website.

C.B.4 Notifiable Data Breaches

Eligible Data Breach means an ‘Eligible Data Breach’ as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Personal Information means ‘Personal Information’ as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

- a) If the Supplier becomes aware that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that there may have been an Eligible Data Breach in relation to any Personal Information held by the Supplier as a result of this Contract or its provision of the Goods and/or Services, the Supplier agrees to:
- (i) notify APRA in writing as soon as possible, which must be no later than within three (3) days of becoming aware; and
 - (ii) unless otherwise directed by APRA, carry out an assessment in accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).
- b) Where the Supplier is aware that there are reasonable grounds to believe there has been, or where APRA notifies the Supplier that there has been, an Eligible Data Breach in relation to any Personal Information held by the Supplier as a result of this Contract or its provision of the Goods and/or Services, the Supplier must:
- (i) take all reasonable action to mitigate the risk of the Eligible Data Breach causing serious harm to any of the individuals to whom the Personal Information relates;
 - (ii) unless otherwise directed by APRA, take all other action necessary to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth); and
 - (iii) take any other action as reasonably directed by APRA.

C.B.5 Liability Cap for Supplier

The Supplier’s liability to pay any amount to APRA arising out of this Contract is limited to three (3) times the contract value. This limit will not apply in relation to any liability arising out of or relating to:

- b) agrees that if it requires Protected Information and Protected Documents in the course of providing the Goods and/or Services to provide an undertaking (in a form provided by APRA) not to disclose the Protected Information or not to produce the Protected Documents to any person, body or court unless approved by APRA in writing.

“Protected Information” and “Protected Documents” have the same meanings as in the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

This clause applies only to the extent that the Supplier is a 'relevant employer' for the purposes of the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (Cth) (the WGE Act). If you are a "relevant employer" you need to ensure you have provided APRA with a compliance letter from WGEA.

The Supplier must comply with its obligations, if any, under the WGE Act. If the Supplier becomes non-compliant with the WGE Act during the Term of the contract, the Supplier must notify APRA's procurement team. Compliance with the WGE Act does not relieve the Supplier from its responsibility to comply with its other obligations under the Contract.

C.B.10 Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth)

C.B.10.1 In this clause C.B.10, Modern Slavery has the same meaning as it has in the Modern Slavery Act 2018 (Cth).

C.B.10.2 The Supplier must take reasonable steps to identify, assess and address risks of Modern Slavery practices in the operations and supply chains used in the provisions of the Goods and/or Services.

C.B.10.3 If at any time the Supplier becomes aware of Modern Slavery practices in the operations and supply chains used in the performance of the Contract, the Supplier must as soon as reasonably practicable take all reasonable action to address or remove these practices, including where relevant by addressing any practices of other entities in its supply chains.

- 10.2 The Supplier must ensure that Subcontractors specified in the Contract (if any) perform that part of the Services specified in the Contract. The Supplier must not subcontract any part of its obligations under the Contract, or replace approved Subcontractors, without prior written consent of the Customer. services and any standard specified in the Contract.

- 11.4 The Customer may reject the Goods and/or Services within ten (10) Business Days after delivery or such longer period specified in the Contract ("Acceptance Period"), if the Goods and/or Services do not comply with the requirements of the Contract.
- 11.5 If during the Acceptance Period circumstances outside the Customer's reasonable control cause a delay in the Customer's evaluation of the compliance of the Goods and/or Services with the Contract, the Customer may give the Supplier a Notice before the end of the original Acceptance Period, setting out the reason for the delay and the revised Acceptance Period date (which must be reasonable having regard to the circumstances causing the delay).
- 11.6 If the Customer does not notify the Supplier of rejection within the Acceptance Period (as extended if applicable), the Customer will be taken to have accepted the Goods and/or Services, though the Customer may accept the Goods and/or Services sooner. Title to Goods transfers to the Customer only on acceptance.
- 11.7 If the Customer rejects the Goods and/or Services, the Customer must issue a Notice clearly stating the reason for rejection and the remedy the Customer requires. No payment will be due for rejected Goods and/or Services until their acceptance.
